James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation Announces 2016 Fellows:

The James Madison Memorial Fellowship Foundation of Alexandria, VA, announced recently that it has selected 51 James Madison Fellows for 2016 in its twenty-fifth annual fellowship competition. James Madison Fellowships support the graduate study of American History by aspiring and experienced secondary school teachers of American History, American Government, and Social Studies. Named in honor of the fourth president of the United States and acknowledged "Father of the Constitution and Bill of Rights," a James Madison Fellowship funds up to $24,000 of each Fellow's course of study towards a master's degree. That program must include a concentration of courses on the history and principles of the United States Constitution. The 51 James Madison Fellows were selected in competition with applicants from each of the 50 states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, and the nation's island and trust territories. The award is intended to recognize promising and distinguished teachers, to strengthen their knowledge of the origins and development of American constitutional government, and thus to expose the nation's secondary school students to accurate knowledge of the nation's constitutional heritage. WLC is proud to recognize History teacher Michael DuPont as the New Hampshire recipient of the James Madison Fellowship.

At the conclusion of the school year, if a student has not received credit for a class due to missing competencies they may have the option to participate in the WLC Summer Competency/Credit Recovery Program. In order to qualify, students must be proficient in at least half of the class competencies. For example, if a student is currently enrolled in a class with 5 competencies, they would need to be proficient in at least 3 of the 5 to be eligible for the program. If your child is proficient in less than half of the competencies for a class, they will be required to take the course over. The Summer Competency/Credit Recovery Program will be held at WLC from 6/13-6/24 for core classes only. Students will be charged per competency being recovered.
